

POSF Membership Information

Who is a Member of POSF, Inc.? Membership in POSF, Inc. is entirely voluntary, not mandatory. The Public Relations Committee maintains a Membership Book to record property owners who choose to become active members of the Corporation.

To become a member, you must:

- Be a property owner in good standing.
- Complete and return the membership application form to POSF.

Important: Owning or purchasing property in Shenandoah Farms does not automatically make you a member. Membership is optional and must be initiated by the property owner.

Why Become a member? As a member:

- You will be included in any official communications or mailings from POSF, Inc.
- You will have the right to vote on matters requiring membership input.

What Membership Does Not Include:

- No additional privileges beyond those of any property owner or resident.
- No obligations beyond submitting the voluntary application.

Your membership simply ensures your inclusion in the official POSF Membership Book and your eligibility to vote on corporate matters.

Thank you,

Stephanie Shaefer - Public Relations Chairman
